

PEMBROKE HORSE SHOW

Large Attendance and Many Fine Animals Each Night.

A MOST DECIDED SUCCESS.

Pembroke People Pleased and Crowd Enjoyed Every Exhibition.

The Pembroke Horse Show this year, which was the ninth annual meet, was a most decided success. The opening night, Wednesday, was well attended and the animals exhibited in the ring were a magnificent display of horses of all classes. Every seat in the grand stand was filled, mostly by the fair sex, while crowds gathered around the ring and enjoyed the evenings to the fullest.

The grounds were brilliantly lighted and at no former show were the people more enthusiastic, though the weather was entirely warm. The attendance from the city, in the face of many local attractions, was larger even than might have been expected. Hopkinsville people always take special interest in everything that our enterprising neighbors pull off and the road from here to Pembroke was lined early with automobiles and every kind of vehicle, while many boarded the 5:30 train and went up to help swell the crowd, coming back to the city on a late train. The Third Regiment Band was there in full strength and added much to the pleasure of the night.

Among the prizes was one of $100, given by the business men of Hopkinsville for best animals in the roadster class. The awards in part were as follows:

ED. CAMPBELL

Of Washington Dies While Visiting His Sister In Clarksville.

Edward Cook Campbell died at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. I. P. Gerhart, in Clarksville, Tuesday afternoon at 4:20 o'clock, after an illness of three months.

Mr. Campbell was born in Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 25, 1855, and removed to Clarksville with his parents when quite young. He lived in Clarksville until about the year 1885. After attaining manhood he engaged in the practice of law at the Clarksville bar and continued in that profession until he entered the field of journalism, which was always more in keeping with his taste and inclinations. He was for a few years editor of the Clarksville Chronicle. He then removed to Jacksonville, Fla., where he did editorial work on one of the daily newspapers and remained there until about the time that his friend and schoolmate, Rufus N. Rhodes, started the Birmingham News, when he joined Mr. Rhodes in Birmingham and was for a number of years editor of that paper. After severing his connection with the Birmingham News he went to Washington, D. C., where he had since been in the employ of the United States Government.—Leaf-Chronicle.

P. M. BALEE LOSES OUT

At Guthrie, Victim Of What He Calls "One Man Power."

Louisville, Ky., September 6.—The Association of Kentucky Postmasters which comprises the first, second and third-class postmasters, has received the resignation of its president, W. C. Balee. The resignation is due to the fact that Mr. Balee has been removed as postmaster. In his letter to the members announcing his resignation, Mr. Balee says:

"Gentlemen—After having served continuously for fifteen years as postmaster of Guthrie, I feel a victim of the 'one man' power and my connection with the office has served in view of this fact, I tender my resignation as President of the Association, effective at once, and I have written the Hon. George Wilhelm, first vice-president and postmaster of Newport, Ky."

The one-man power to which Mr. Balee refers is that of Senator Bradley, who has run his steam roller over Mr. Balee.

The State Convention of the Association will be held in Louisville October 7 and 8.

COTTON CROP BEAT RECORD.

Worth $107,000,000 Less Than That of the Preceding Year.

New Orleans, Sept. 6.—The cotton crop of the south for the year ending Aug. 31, 1912, according to statistics compiled by H. G. Heser, secretary of the New Orleans cotton exchange, exceeded that of the previous year by 4,018,331 bales, yet its money value was $107,074,825 less. This was due as much to the low grade of the crop as to the decrease in the price resulting from overproduction. It was the lowest in grade of any crop for the past ten years, the average being strictly low middling to middling, comparing with a slight shade under strict middling last year.

Not Soliciting Teachers.

Barksdale Hamlett, Superintendent of Public Instruction of Kentucky, in accepting the State vice presidency of the Woodrow Wilson Teachers' Union, a national organization formed to secure campaign contributions from the teachers of the country for the Democratic national ticket, announces that the matter of making donations is purely voluntary with the teachers of the State and that they are not required to contribute.

Decisions as to company prizes were announced yesterday and the encampment came to an end last night. It was a great success, except in point of attendance. The number present fell far short of those expected.

TOBACCO ORATORS

Have Been On The Stump All The Week.

The county is being canvassed thoroughly with the view of reorganizing the Tobacco Association and no efforts are being spare to give every tobacco grower an opportunity of signing up by the 21st of this month, when the books of the Association will be closed.

Speakers are engaged to lay the vital question before all and if strenuous efforts and thorough explanation avail anything at this crucial time in the history of the association, it ought to be a go, for it simply means the life or death of the organization. We make no prediction as to what may be the result, but two weeks hence the association will be either very much alive or very dead. The matter is altogether in the hands of the men who raise the weed.

Among the men who are working so hard to put new life into the organization are: Capt. W. J. Stone, of Kuttawa, D. C. McGregor, Herman Southell, Dave Smith and Jas. West. These gentlemen are billed to speak today at Lantrops, Dr. Durham's store, Thomas' store and Kelly. They have been covering as much territory inside the county for several days and have several other days of work before them.

BANDIT CAUGHT

By Engineer Baer Who Knocked Him Down With A Torch.

New Orleans, September 4.—A lone bandit who held up a north bound express of the Louisville and Nashville railroad at eight-thirty o'clock tonight, near Michand, looted the mail car and robbed the passengers in five Pullmans and a club car, just as he was about to leave the train was struck on the head with a brass torch by Engineer Baer and captured. He was taken to Bay St. Louis and may die. He gave the name of H. E. Edwards. The booty one mail bag, was recovered except and returned.

FAMOUS ATHLETE.

Football Star Nominated For Governor By Wisconsin Democrats.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 6.—Judge C. A. Karel, the former Wisconsin football star, is the Democratic nominee for the governorship of Wisconsin. Anti-LaFollette Republicans aided in his nomination, defeating Adolph J. Schmitz.

Republicans were so active on both sides of the Democratic quarrel that it is doubtful whether there will be a Republican ticket in the field this fall. The State law requires that a party at a primary must poll at least 10 per cent. of its vote at the preceding election to hold its organization. Returns today indicate that the Republicans may have failed to do this. Less than 50 per cent. of the total vote was polled through the State.

The fight centered on LaFollette, the anti-flocking to the Democrats in order to break the hold of his faction in State affairs.

100 MARK REACHED

Again Wednesday, the Second Time This Summer.

W. F. Randle reports that the mercury reached the 100 degree mark last Wednesday, the second time it has reached that degree this summer, the first being on the 15th of July. Last Thursday the highest point reached was 99 degrees, Wednesday and Thursday nights 78 and 77 degrees were reached.

People who do not live in town are as welcome to the open-air concerts as anybody else.

New York City says it is the greatest show that ever entered Madison Square Garden. Its new street parade is called a world-beater.

It will unload at the Ninth street L. & N. depot soon after daylight.

SENSATIONAL TESTIMONY

Lee Perkins at Mayfield, Ky., Says He Stood Guard.

Mayfield, Ky., Sept. 5.—Lee Perkins, testifying yesterday in the trial of Wood Gordon, charged with arson, admitted that he was implicated in the burning of tobacco warehouses here. Perkins swore that Bolin Wright, also under arrest, and Gordon contracted with him that he, Perkins, was to apply the torch, he weakened, he said, but stood guard while the fire was started with oil by Wright and Gordon. Perkins confessed to the burning of his own home a few minutes later, saying this was part of the agreement. He said Gordon, who is a former city councilman, threatened to kill him if he divulged the alleged plot. Gordon was held to the Grand jury. The three men are accused of firing five warehouses in which was stored about $50,000 worth of tobacco held for foreign shipment.

FRANKFORT 5, CLARKSVILLE 1

Kitty League Pennant Winners Blew Up in Fourth Inning. Game at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 6.—Clarksville players took a balloon trip in the fourth inning yesterday in the first game of the championship series between the pennant winners in the Blue Grass and Kitty leagues, when Frankfort scored five runs and won the game, 5 to 1. Clarksville scored in the third on two hits, an error and a wild pitch. Humphrey pitched good ball and deserved a victory, but was a trifle wild. Cramer was steady in the pinches and kept the hits scattered. Both clubs fielded brilliantly in spots, and also played genuine bush baseball at other times.

Anna Gould's latest husband, Prince de Sagan, has had his title wiped out by a sale of his estate under pressure of the Kaiser, and Anna's son loses his place in the line of princelings.

Mrs. Rae Copley Raum, woman candidate for Mayor of San Diego, Cal., a sister of Congressman Copley, of Illinois, is making the taxation of bachelors one of the issues of her campaign. She says: "No man has a right to live alone. Bachelorhood is selfishness incarnate and it's a man's duty to the community to get married and raise a family. If they don't, we assess them $100 a year, and see how quick they forsake single blessedness, the selfish things. Bachelors are responsible for race suicide, tax 'em."

CIRCUS IS HERE.

Ringling Brothers' Show Arrived On Five Special Trains.

WILL GIVE NEW PARADE.

Performance Introduced By Great $500,000 Spectacle of "Joan of Arc."

The "Flying Squadron," which in the parlance of the circus man was the first section of Ringling Brothers' mile-long train to arrive in Hopkinsville. It brought the hotel equipment and corps of chefs, cooks, waiters and kitchen helpers necessary to prepare a breakfast for 1,200 men and women with good appetites. The second section carrying the parade equipment reached the city shortly after the first. The third section, with the various shops and offices, the menagerie, the most of the horses, and the canvass arrived later. The vast amount of ring properties, poles, stakes, seat planks and draft wagons, came on the fourth train. On the last section came the performers, the business staff, the ring horses, the elephants and the camels. The work of unloading it is not difficult. It practically unloads itself.

It is expected that the entire show will be under canvas long before 9 o'clock. At 10 the parade will leave the city and pass through the streets. It will be three miles long. The parade will be in charge of Ringling Brothers. It is expected to build a parade of 630 horses and nearly all the elephants in America.

Are You A Woman.

Baltimore, Md.—Mrs. W. H. Ison, at 1419 East Madison street, writes: "For several years, I suffered, off and on, from female troubles, until finally I was taken down and could do nothing. The pains I experienced, I shall never forget. I lost weight till I was only skin and bones. I believe I would have been in my grave, if I had not tried Cardui. I shall praise it as long as I live." Many women, like Mrs. Ison, are weak and discouraged, on account of some painful ailment. Are you one of these sufferers? Cardui will help you. Try it today. Any druggist.

ca will be seen. This pageant is far better than the Ringlings have devised in the past. That is equivalent to saying that it could not possibly be better.

There will be two performances here. The afternoon show will begin at 2 o'clock. The night show will begin at 8 o'clock. The doors will open an hour earlier for an inspection of the greatest menagerie in the world.

Early this morning a downtown office will be opened in Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated. Reserved seats and admissions can be bought there at the same prices charged at the ticket wagons. This convenience will save busy people much time and trouble.

The program of circus acts will begin with the new spectacle of "Joan of Arc," the most gigantic undertaking in the history of circus affairs. It is enacted on a portable stage bigger than a hundred ordinary theatres and with a cast of 1,200 characters and a trainload of scenery.

The Tennessee Central Railroad will run trains every few minutes to the show grounds, just south of town, at 10 cents for the round trip.

AMUSEMENTS.

Joe Weber, the producing Manager of the new German-French musical farce, "Alma, Where Do You Live," which he will present in English at Holland's Opera House Sept. 13, is the only actor manager in this country who owns his own theatre outright.

There are others who lease houses in New York, or who have control of the engagements in a certain house, but Mr. Weber is the sole owner of Weber's Theatre. It was at this house that he first made his successful production of "Alma," and by sheer daintiness of interpretation forced its acceptance by the New York public. The result was that the spicy musical farce ran a full season at Weber's Theatre.

KENTUCKY STATE FAIR, SEPTEMBER 9-14.

The tenth annual Kentucky State Fair, which will begin at the Fair Grounds Monday, September 9th, promises to eclipse all previous events of that nature held in the Southland. The attendance will unquestionably be double from the city of Louisville alone, if not trebled or quadrupled. The Louisville people have come to a realization of what the Fair really means as an institution of the State, aside from its educational advantages of the State, as well; and they are preparing to turn out in tremendous numbers every afternoon and evening.

For the first time in the history of the Fair, the banks will close one day, the retail merchants will give a half holiday, the jobbers and whole sale dealers will give a half holiday, many of the largest factories will give their employees a half holiday, all of them urging that their employees take advantage of the occasion to visit the Fair. The heads of houses of Louisville firms have expressed their determination to visit the Fair in person, not only once, but many times this year.

Mayor Head has issued a proclamation giving a half holiday to city employees.

Roasted Victim Alive.
An almost unbelievably cruel happening has come to light at Hiroshima, Japan. There a man and his wife have been arrested for willfully cremating a live man. The prisoners were in charge of a crematorium, and while at work a fatal voice coming out of a coffin begged for fresh air. The couple took no notice, however, and proceeded to apply fire, roasting the man alive.

INAUGURATION OF IRON AGE

Authorities Differ as to the Time and Place of its First Introduction to the World.

Some authorities incline to the view that the iron age was inaugurated in Asia or in Africa. The investigations of recent years have pointed to the conclusion that it was not worked in Egypt until the ninth century before Christ, or in Libya until 466 A. D.; that the Semite adopted its use still later, and that it has been known in Uganda only within the last five or six centuries. There are Chinese records of date about four centuries before Christ that mention iron. Bronze weapons were employed in China until about 700 A. D.

It is thought that the metallurgy of iron must have originated in Central Europe, especially in Noricum, which approximately represented modern Austria and Bavaria. Only at Hallstatt and in Bosnia and Transylvania, from which countries the Achaeans and Dorians are supposed to have migrated to Hellas, are found evidences of a gradual introduction of iron, at first as an ornament applied to the bronze which it ultimately replaced. Everywhere else iron was introduced in no gradual fashion, a fact that implies a foreign origin. Meteoric iron was known in Egypt in remote antiquity, but no doubt it was worked as flints are worked, by cutting or chipping, and was not smelted. In other words, it was the metallurgy, not the knowledge of iron, that originated in Central Europe.

DOCTOR FEELS HIS HANDICAP

Recognizes Distinct Limitations When Called On to Cope With Modern "Scientific" Babies.

Because the doctor did not put on his seven-league boots and start the minute he heard there was a sick child in the neighborhood, the woman who had summoned him accused him of inhumanity. But the doctor protested that he was not inhuman.

"I am not anxious to respond," he said, "because the parents will not do anything I tell them to and will get a doctor more to their liking later in the day. How do I know? You as good as told me so yourself. You said the youngster was a scientifically reared baby; never knew a kiss or a cuddle or a germ or a tummyache until the present attack. Scientific babies are the despair of old-fashioned practitioners. The kinds of babies he is used to are those that depend mostly upon mothering to make them well. If an old-fashioned baby bumps his head or stubs his toe or mashes his thumb, just let mother kiss the bruise and it will stop hurting. Having been brought up on such nonsensical notions and believing in them still to a certain extent, there is no denying that in treating the new-style baby the old doctor is not a great success."

Concerning the Mole.

Naturalists aver that among common animals few have been less studied in their life history than the mole. Accordingly a British scientist has turned his attention to the mole, with the result that some interesting data concerning this queer creature have been collected.

Under the edifice which the mole constructs above the surface of the ground will always be found a series of tunnels. A curious feature, almost invariably found, is a perpendicular run penetrating about a foot below the bottom of the nest and then turning upward to meet another run. A mole is never, one authority contends, found in his nest, although it may be yet warm from his body when opened. Guided by smell and hearing, a mole frequently locates the nest of a partridge or pheasant above his run and, penetrating it from below, eats the eggs. The adult mole is practically blind, but there are embryonic indications that the power of sight in the race has deteriorated.—Harper's Weekly.

Opened His Eyes.

Sweet Master Chaucer Epicure and Amariyllis fair, went strolling by the mill-stream—a most idyllic pair. "My lovelest of loves!" broke forth the swain's excited muse. "Permit me to extol the charms which thus my soul enthuse. Your little ears, so shelly pink, for lovers' praise were made; no fairy feet than thine more neat, e'er tripped o'er moonlit glade; your eyes are like twin stars of night; like fine-spun gold's your hair; your lips put Cupid's bow to scorn; your teeth are past compare." But here a playful gust of wind came gayly through the trees, and whisked his darling's hat and hair away upon its breeze! Alas! why did the maiden then permit herself to shout, and cause her lover added pain to see her teeth fall out?

Lucky to Get Anything.

The law of the land had spoken, and the verdict was $5,000 damages. "Five thousand dollars!" muttered the senior partner in the legal firm who had managed the plaintiff's case. "Not so bad." "I think it pretty good," said the junior partner. "How much shall we give our client?" "H'm! Say $300," said the senior thoughtfully. "No, stop a minute!" "Well?" "We wasn't to be too fasty," said the successful lawyer slowly. "You'd better write and promise to pay him the three hundred."

THREE DEFINITIONS, Oculist

A physician who treats pathological conditions of the eye, such as granulated lids, glaucoma, etc., and does eye surgery. He frequently prescribes glasses, however.

Optometrist
One who is recognized by the laws of 27 States as The Eye-sight Specialist. He does not treat diseased conditions of the eye, nor does he resort to the unscientific practice of paralyzing the muscles of the eyes by the use of belladonna, or other drugs, in making a diagnosis.

Optician
One who makes and repairs spectacles. He is NOT an eye specialist in any sense, but either simply sells glasses or fills the prescriptions of the Optometrist.

CHRISTIAN COUNTY

One Of The Trio Of Record Breakers.

Daviess, Christian and McLean counties break the record for Nimrod's. They are the only counties in which the clerks have run out of blanks for issuing licenses to hunters and have had to make requisition on the state game commission for another supply.—Owensboro Inquirer.

Unless Worrying.
An old author has remarked that there are two things which it does no good to worry about—what you can help, and what you can't help. The latter, because fretting won't help the matter; and in the former, because it is your duty to go and help it, without fretting.

Sixty Lives Lost

Leas, France, Sept. 6.—It is officially announced that the total deaths from the explosion of the fire-damp in the Clarence pit, near Bruay, number sixty. These include several miners who died after being brought to the surface. Most of the bodies were so mangled as to be unrecognizable.

DANGER PERIOD OF WOMANS' LIFE FROM 45 to 50

Interesting Experience of Two Women—Their Statements Worth Reading.

Asheville, N.C.—"I suffered for years with female trouble while going through the Change of Life. I tried a local physician for a couple of years without any substantial benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I quit my physician and commenced using it with the happiest results. I am today practically a well woman and anxious to contribute my mite towards inducing others to try your great medicine, as I am fully persuaded that it will cure the ailments from which I suffered if given a fair chance.

"If you think this letter will contribute anything towards further introducing your medicines to afflicted women who are passing through this trying period, it is with great pleasure I consent to its publication."—Mrs. JULIA A. MOORE, 17 East St., Asheville, N.C.

The Case of Mrs. Kirlin.
Circleville, Ohio.—"I can truthfully say that I never had anything do me so much good during Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I had taken one half a bottle of it I began to feel better, and I have continued taking it. My health is better than it has been for several years. If all women would take it they would escape untold pain and misery at this time of life."—Mrs. ALICE KIRLIN, 358 W. Mill St., Circleville, Ohio.

The Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. At such times women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In Memory.

We, your committee, appointed at the first regular meeting of the lodge since the death of Brother Hiram P. Thomas to frame resolutions in testimony of our sorrow, and of our affectionate regard for him, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, it has pleased the Grand Exalted Ruler of the Universe to remove in the prime of his young manhood our beloved brother, Hiram P. Thomas; and, whereas, we are keenly sensible of our loss and bowed in a common grief;

Be it resolved, That Hopkinsville Lodge No. 545, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, in the untimely death of Brother Thomas, loses a member who was always active and zealous in his duties as an Elk, ever ready to succor the needy and distressed both in and out of the fraternity, eager to advance the interests of the order, and devoted to its welfare and prosperity;

Resolved, That in his relations to the members of the lodge he constantly practiced the cardinal principles of the order, charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity; and, in his genial nature and large hearted generosity, "Wrote the faults of his brothers upon the sands, their virtues upon the tablets of love and memory;"

Resolved, That we tender our sincerest sympathy to the bereaved mother and brothers of the deceased, that these resolutions be recorded on the minutes of the lodge; and that we, his brothers, shall ever treasure in golden memory his cordiality and enthusiasm, his optimism and cheerfulness, and the many good deeds and qualities of personal charm which reflected daily in his life enduring attributes of our order.

FIRST LICENSE

To Marry Was Issued Last Thursday.

$200 Bond Each.

Ed Sharber and George Glass, both colored, who engaged in a shooting test at Crofton on the 17th of August, were arraigned before County Judge Knight last Thursday. Both of the accused waived examination and the court held them over to the September grand jury in the sum of $200 each, in default of which they were committed to jail.

Again In Parade.

Many of the pretty floats seen in the Woodmen's parade Thursday may be seen in the wake of the circus parade, as many who took part have expressed themselves as ready to go in. Mighty good way of advertising business to about 10,000 in one day.

Republican Plurality 5,909.

Complete unofficial returns from Vermont give Fletcher, Republican, 26,259; Howe, Democrat, 20,350; Mezger, Progressive, 15,800. The Legislature, which will elect a Governor, has an estimated Republican majority of 63.

Baby's Terrible Death.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 6.—The nine-months-old baby of J. J. Crosthwaite was instantly killed near Sadieville, when it was thrown out of its mother's lap by a runaway horse and thrown on a stake, which impaled its eye.

EXPLAINS NOISE OF THUNDER

Modern Science Asserts the Sound is Caused by a Series of Explosions.

There have been a great many different theories about the cause of the noise we call thunder. Some savage nations think it is caused by the clouds knocking together in a storm and making a spark, like two pieces of flint, with a crackling sound at the same time. Not long ago, when electricity first began to be understood, many persons believed that the lightning made a hole in the air as it passed along and that the rush of air to fill up this vacuum caused the noise, just as it is caused by the air rushing back into the vacuum in a big cannon.

The more modern theory, based on some remarkable experiments with very fluffy cotton that was made damp, is that the intense heat of the electrical discharge instantly turns the surrounding vapor of the clouds into steam and causes an explosion as sudden and fierce as gunpowder. It is the number and diversity of these explosions that makes the crackling sound we hear when the thunder is close to us, which would not be the case if the cause were the air rushing into a single vacuum, as that would make only one big bang, just like a cannon.

OSTRICHES DRIVEN IN FLOCK

Australian Farmer Had Little Difficulty in Transferring Birds a Considerable Distance.

A recent demonstration has proven that ostriches may be driven from place to place as successfully as sheep, cattle or horses. The experiment was made by a New South Wales ostrich farmer, who desired to transfer his fine flock of 70 ostriches from his farm at Temora to an irrigation area he had secured under the state at Yanco—a distance of 85 miles. The birds had to be driven a considerable portion of the distance, to be trucked by train for the remainder of the journey. The result of the experiment which was conducted by careful, experienced drovers, showed that the ostriches proved easier to handle, if anything, than sheep, the method adopted being to push them from behind. Many people imagine that an ostrich will kick if interfered with, and that consequently it is dangerous to get behind one, but though they do kick, they kick forward, like a cow. They can be pushed from behind with perfect safety. The birds were considerably alarmed by barking dogs enroute, and horses were equally frightened of them, but there was no mishap.

EXCELLENT PLAN.

"I see," said Mrs. De Jones, while Mrs. Van Tyle was calling, "that you have a Chinese chauffeur. Do you find him satisfactory?"

"He's perfectly fine," said Mrs. Van Tyle. "To begin with, his yellow complexion is such that at the end of a long, dusty ride he doesn't show any spots, and then when I am out in my limousine I have his pig-tail stuck through a little hole in the plate glass window and I use it as a sort of bell rope to tell him where to stop."—Harper's Weekly

CAUTION.

"Mrs. Wetmore is one of the most cautious persons I have ever known."

"Yes. She was telling me the other day that she never kept a striking clock in the kitchen because she feared that if she did so the clock might acquire the habit."

TOUGH LUCK.

"Who owns that homely face staring down at me?" asked the baby. "That," said the lady in the uniform, "is your papa."

"Oh, gee whizz!" retorted the little one. "And that's the guy everybody says I look like."—Detroit Free Press.

ITS KIND.

"The doctor advises me that my tonsils must be cut out."

"That's what I call very unpalatable advice."

CONSIDERABLE OF A FEAT.

"Have you ever noticed any signs of intelligence in shellfish?"
"Almost human intelligence. I have often seen a clam baffle dinner."

USES FOR ADHESIVE TAPE

Will Keep End of Rubber Hose From Spitting or Hot Water Bag From Leaking.

"Is there any possible way," asked the Summer Bride, "of keeping the cut end of a piece of rubber hose from spitting? Where it's forced over the end of a gas stove pipe, for instance? I know one really ought to have iron pipe connections made by a gas fitter, but sometimes one has to put up with rubber pipe as a temporary convenience."

"I know," said the Little Wise Lady. "Those things will happen sometimes, and the quickest way of heading off trouble is by using ordinary half-inch adhesive, such as comes in little rolls, and to wind ('strap' is a better word) several thicknesses of it around each end of the rubber hose, after it is forced into place on the stove or gas-pipe. It holds the edges firm and prevents the tension which cracks the rubber. Of course, one might use rubber cement, but it's a fussy thing to tinker with, and there is all the bother of waiting for it to dry. Adhesive—take it all together—is one of the most useful things to have around the house of which I've any record. Try it next time your rubber hot water bottle springs a tiny leak—two or three layers of it—of course making sure that the rubber surface is dry before putting it on. If it is slow to stick warm it slightly before applying, and you'll have no more trouble."—New York Herald.

NOT HARD TO CLEAN SWEATER

Daintiest of Creamy White Ones May Be Renovated in the Following Manner.

A sweater is one of the necessities of the wardrobe. No other wrap can take its place. The dainty woman always prefers the creamy white ones, but often hesitates to buy because of the seeming difficulty of cleaning them. The following method simplifies that process, so that no one need hesitate to buy one on that account. Woolen blankets may be cleaned in the same manner.

A quarter of a bar of a good white soap is melted over the stove. To this is added about half a cup of ammonia. Enough hot water is run into the pan or tub to cover the sweater. The soap and ammonia are stirred in, and then the sweater is placed in. With a stick on the top of a washboard this is stirred and turned until the dirt is out. Rinse in several waters, then lay on a slanting board to drain, but no not squeeze dry.

There are several methods of drying. One is to fasten a sheet flat over several clothes lines and spread the sweater on that in the sun.

Stucco Whitewash.

Unslacked lime one-half bushel, sal one peck, rice three pounds, spanish whiting one-half pound, glue one pound.

Slack the lime with boiling water and cover it during the operation to keep in the steam. Strain the liquid through a fine sieve and add the salt already dissolved in water. Boil the rice to a thin paste and stir it in very hot, then put in the whiting and the glue. Dissolve the glue by soaking several hours in cold water, then place in double boiler and heat slowly. Use agate or porcelain kettle. Iron will turn the glue dark. Now add five gallons of hot water to the mixture. Stir it well and let it stand two or three days covered from the dust. This whitewash is applied while hot. It is very brilliant and durable. Is designed for brick and stone, but can be used for inside walls just as well.

Gravy Soup.

Cut the meat from a six-pound shin of beef, cutting it into small squares. Heat two tablespoonfuls butter in a sauce pan, roll the pieces of meat in flour and add them by degrees to the butter; stir now and then and let simmer for one hour. The meat should look brown and juices be drawn out. Add one head of celery, two sliced onions, two sliced turnips, two sliced carrots, bunch of sweet herbs, blade of mace, two bay leaves, six cloves, two teaspoonfuls whole peppers and one tablespoonful salt; also add beef bones sawed into small pieces and one gallon of boiling water. Simmer for six hours, strain and let it get cold. Then remove all the fat. Serve with small pieces of cooked vegetables in it.

Blanketed Chicken.

Split and clean two broilers. Place in a dripping pan and sprinkle with salt, pepper, two tablespoonfuls of green pepper finely chopped and one tablespoonful chives finely cut. Cover with strips of thinly cut bacon and bake in hot oven until tender. Remove to a serving dish and pour around the following sauce: Use three tablespoonfuls of fat from the dripping pan, adding to this flour and one and one-half cupfuls of thin cream, or, if preferred, half chicken stock may be substituted. Season with salt and pepper.

Killarney Potatoes.

One quart diced potatoes in pan, large lump butter, one pint sweet milk, salt and pepper; yolks of three eggs and white of one beaten smooth; pour over potatoes, baked until tender, add whipped whites of two eggs; return to oven until set.

Corn Oysters.

One egg beaten very light, one cup corn, one-half cup flour, one even teaspoon baking powder, butter size of walnut, a little salt. Mix and dredge, 1½ teaspoonfuls and fry in deep fat.

One of the Number of Metcalfe's Exclusives

This is a cut of Metcalfe's new Prosperity Shaper, which is going such a long way in decreasing the irritation of men folks' necks and tempers, by letting all fold collars be so ironed that tie slides well in collar, and collars are given nice, smooth, oval edge. It is utterly impossible for a collar to crack or break in our laundering process. Our shirt department is one which we feel proud of; not only is work done right, but the shirts are put in Sanitary Covers. Our Dry Cleaning department is in the hands of skilled workmen.

We have flowers for all occasions. Remember that if you buy or contract for $10 worth of coupon books, and take one during August and another when the Avalon is finished, the profits from the business, and more, go into the Avalon, a place of pleasure for Hopkinsville and surrounding country people.

FEEDING MILK TO CHICKENS

Produces Most Delicious White Meat and for Fattening There is Nothing Better.

A good way to earn money is to combine the dairy and poultry plants on the farm. In other words, feed the milk to the chickens. For fattening or for laying birds, there is nothing better. It does not make much difference, either, what kind of milk you give them. Sour and butter milk are as good as any, while sweet milk and curd are very good.

W. A. Lippincott, head of the poultry department of the Kansas Agricultural college, gives the following as an excellent ration for fattening purposes:

- 1 part corn meal.
- 1 part oat flour.
- 1 part barley meal
- 1 part beef scrap
- 8 parts buttermilk or skim milk.

This makes what is called slop feed, as it is thin enough to pour. The best feeding results are had with crated feeding. The birds, five or six in number, are placed in a slat coop. The bottom is of lattice work, and that makes it self-cleaning. There is plenty of room in the coop, but the idea is to prevent exercise.

The crate should be put in a protected place but not in a house. Under a tree or at the side of a building is a good place, if it is where other fowls cannot molest them. They are given no food for twenty-four hours previous to the feeding period, which should last from two to three weeks. The milk will be sufficient to allay their thirst. Feeding in this way has brought gains of from 25 to 85 per cent. It costs from five to seven cents' worth of grain to put on a pound of gain. But if it did not pay from a feeding standpoint it would in other ways, for the flesh of a bird fattened in this way is far better, being much whiter in appearance and more juicy and much more palatable.

For laying fowls milk furnishes the animal protein that is necessary. In this way it takes the place of beef scraps, which is a packing-house product and somewhat expensive. It has been demonstrated that for every quart of milk a hen will drink she will lay an extra egg, but of course the inability to drink much limits the egg production.

RIPEN CREAM FOR CHURNING

Make Starter From Fresh Milk, Drawn in Most Careful Manner—Keep at Low Temperature.

The ferments which produce a clean, acid taste in the cream are the ones that will produce a good flavor in the butter. It is best to make a starter, all things considered. Make the starter from fresh milk, drawn in the most cleanly manner from a cow which has calved within the last four months. Put a couple of quarts or a larger quantity, if needed, into clean jars; cover to exclude the air, and keep warm, even as high as 90 degrees, for 24 hours, when the milk, if normal, will be well loppered. If it is not loppered it should not be used. If it is, skim off the top layer an inch deep and use the sour milk below for your starter. Keep the cream warm until it is properly soured, which is indicated by its becoming thicker and with a pleasant sour taste. Do not allow the cream to become over ripe. Churn just as soon as it is ripe enough. Do not fill the churn more than half full. Churn with an even, regular stroke. Add the starter at the rate of one pint to four gallons of cream.

Cream for churning should be kept at a low temperature, thoroughly stirred when more is added, and none should be put in for 24 hours before churning. During this time the cream should be allowed to warm up to 60 or 65 degrees, and then cooled off to 58 degrees three or four hours before churning. Unsatisfactory results will be obtained by rapidly cooling or heating the cream. For family use take one pint of buttermilk from the last churning for use as a starter.

"Cream ready for churning," says Farm Dairying, "should have a clean, pleasant, slightly sour taste and smell; should be the consistency of molasses, and when poured be free from lumps, and have a smooth, glossy appearance. It should have from .5 to .55 per cent. acid and from 24 to 28 per cent. fat if churned in a barrel churn. Cream of this richness yields about three pounds of butter per gallon."

Imported Seeds.

A special examination of seed of alsike cover and red clover imported from Canada during 1911 showed that approximately one-half was unsalable for seeding purposes in that country. The seed control act there prohibiting sale when more than a prescribed number of noxious seeds are found to the pound. One lot of seed of alsike contained less than 50 per cent. of pure seed, germinating only 15 per cent., or seven and one-half per cent. of the entire bulk. This particular lot contained approximately 135,000 weed seeds in each pound.

Uniformity in the Herd.

A uniform lot of pigs will feed better, look better when fattened, and command a higher price on the market than a mixed lot. With a bunch of sows closely conforming to the same standard, whose reproductive powers are similar, uniform pigs may be expected.

Kill the Borer.

If you want your peach crop to live, kill the borer. It lives three times a summer and kills every borer.

Might Be Dead Today.

Garden City, Kas.—In a letter from Mrs. James Hammer, of this city, she says: "I firmly believe that I would not be alive today, if it were not for Cardui. I had been a sufferer from womanly troubles all my life, until I found that great remedy. I feel that I can't praise it too highly." Are you a woman suffering from some of the troubles, to which a woman is peculiarly liable? If so, why not try Cardui, the woman's tonic? You can rely on Cardui. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and acts gently but surely, without bad after-effects. 'Twill help you. Ask your druggist.

COOKING PEAS AND CARROTS

Many Ways of Preparation to Suit the Individual Taste—Peas Served in Turnip Shells.

One way of preparing peas, and for my own taste there is none better: Blend together two tablespoonfuls of butter and one tablespoonful of flour, one-half teaspoonful of salt and a little pepper, for each pint of peas. When the peas are soft stir this into the peas and cook five minutes. In preparing them in that way all the flavor and nutritive value of the peas are retained. Use care that there is not too much water; there should be only enough to cook the peas in, which is scarcely enough to cover them.

To Cook Young Carrots.—Wash and scrape the carrots and cut in quarters lengthwise; then holding the quarters together place on a board and cut crosswise through the four quarters in one-half inch pieces. Boil twenty minutes or until soft in just enough water to cover. They are very nice prepared by the same recipe given for peas; and just before serving add two teaspoonfuls of parsley finely minced to each pint of carrots.

Peas and Carrots.—One cup of carrots cut in small pieces as stated and two cups of shelled peas. Cook the carrots and peas together until soft. Drain; add four tablespoonfuls of cream and one tablespoonful of butter, one-half teaspoonful of salt and one-eighth of a teaspoonful of pepper. Heat over hot water and serve as soon as hot.

Peas Served in Turnip Shells.—Use the flat turnips for this dish and choose them near of a size. Wash and pare the turnips and with a sharp knife scoop out the center, leaving a shell one-half inch thick. Steam the turnips and be careful not to overcook them or they will fall to pieces. Put a folded napkin in the serving dish and place the turnips on it; shake a little salt and pepper over them, and fill with cooked peas which have been seasoned with butter, salt and pepper. Do not waste the turnip which was scooped out, but cook and mash it and reserve for another meal.

ADORNMENTS FOR THE TABLE

Cloths, Luncheon Sets and Dollies
Should All Be of the Finest Possible Materials.

The tablecloth is becoming a thing of rare beauty and some of the new ones are lovely enough, with their wealth of lace and hand embroidery, to be used for a lingerie gown.

For the round table the linen covers, only the top, a 14-inch border of clumsy lace hanging below. This same lace is inserted in the center of the cloth and takes the place of the usual centerpiece.

For the luncheon set color is being introduced. Daisies embroidered in natural tints upon heavy Irish linen give a charming new touch. These, as a rule, include a large centerpiece and a dozen dollies.

The petals of the flowers are done with very thick, fluffy floss and the embroidery can be finished in a very short time. Other pretty luncheon sets are made of finer linen, the dollies being cut in squares instead of round, while the new punch work and a very little fine French embroidery are introduced.

For breakfast the table linen is much plainer, and these sets include the cloth and a dozen small napkins.

Damask embroidered in quaint little flower designs in color are very attractive, while others are of linen crash embroidered in cross-stitch.

All of these are rather expensive when bought in the shops, but the housewife who has several idle hours during the day can with but a slight expense and little trouble give her table linen a distinctive air.

Health Plum Pudding.

Two cups best graham flour, sifted and then measured. Mix with half a teaspoon of salt, one-half teaspoon of soda and one teaspoon of baking powder, one cup of nuts (either almonds, English walnuts or pecans), a cup of raisins, a cup of milk and one-half cup of molasses. Wash, seed and dry the raisins and flour them lightly. Slice or chop the nuts fine, then add molasses and milk to the flour; mix well and quickly; add raisins and nuts; mix thoroughly again. Butter pudding mold, turn in the batter and boil three hours. Serve with lemon sauce.

To Wash Blue Duck.

To wash the child's blue duck suit, shake it free of all outer dust, then dip it in cold water containing ox-gall in proportion of a tablespoonful to a gallon of water. Let the garment get almost dry, drying it in the shade; then wash it quickly in tepid water, using borax soap, or if you have not this, use a very little pure white soap wherever necessary to remove the dirt, and add a little borax to the wash water. Rinse well, dry in the shade, and iron while still damp, or at least not thoroughly dry.

Seeded Grape Pie.

Take your grapes, pulp them, set aside the skins, bring the pulp to a boil slowly, then press through a sieve, mix with the skins. Take a cup of sugar, mix two tablespoonfuls flour with it, put with your seeded grapes, add a lump of butter. Have a nice, rich pie crust; line your pan with it, put in grapes, then your top crust. Cut slits in it to allow the steam to escape. Bake the top with melted butter; bake in a hot oven to a golden brown. Serve a little warm with coffee.

Charles W. Morse Again In Business.

New York, Sept. 5.—Predictions that Charles W. Morse would resume his business operations since his sentence in the Atlanta penitentiary has been commuted by President Taft were fulfilled yesterday when Morse rented a small suite of offices in 43 Exchange Place, in the heart of the financial district. Announcement was made that Mr. Morse would again be active in affairs at the head of the Morse Security Company.

At the time he was liberated his health was exceedingly poor, but he has since recovered some of his former strength.

Lecture on Wheat.

George Roberts, of the State University, will be here Monday, September 16th, and will lecture on wheat.

Mr. Roberts comes under the auspices of the B. M. A. and every farmer in the county who can spare the time should be here and hear him. They will learn something, no doubt, that will be of worth to them in the seeding of one of their staple crops. Christian has at times led every county in the state. Why should she not do so again?

Local Paragraphs.

Everything is all over now. Let's settle down to business for a while.

The State Fair begins at Louisville next Monday and Hopkinsville will send a large delegation.

The chief corner stone of the big office building was put in position last Wednesday without ceremony.

The days are growing mighty short at both ends now. Today is shorter by 51 minutes than was August 7th.

Rev. E. B. Landis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has returned and the regular church services will be resumed tomorrow.

There is great complaint among the farmers about flies being so plentiful. Some say they have never known the pests to be so bad.

Farmers say that flies have never been worse than now and that horses and cattle are so annoyed that they cannot graze.

The high stone wall on the south side of Virginia Park is being partly removed to allow the buildings to be moved over it.

Where was Hopkinsville when the league played out? Down in the cellar. A bad beginning ruined every chance of winning the rag.

After the circus today there's nothing much to look forward to until the national election November 5th, except—well, study it out yourself.

There's no question about Hopkinsville having given the Woodmen the heartiest welcome that she knew how—and she knows how, too.

Once upon a time—are we dreaming?—it seems to us the I. C. Railroad Co. promised to build a new passenger station. Everybody will agree that one is needed.

My! What a lot of pretty girls can't win isn't worth having. It was not only the decoration of the wagon but what it held that took first prize in the parade.

The very last game of baseball to be participated in by the Moguls was played Wednesday afternoon. It was a small crowd that witnessed it, and though the local team won, by 4 to 3, the size of the crowd was all it ought to have been. Only three or four of the Moguls played as if they wanted to win.

Today is the day named by General Manager F. G. Ewing for the election of district chairmen of the Planters Protective Association. Members in every county within the territory of the Association are urged to go to their voting places and select a district chairman. Pledges will be furnished at every voting place and every one who has not already signed must do so before voting.

Maine Votes Monday.

Augusta, Me., Sept. 6.—Maine will cast a bigger vote next Monday than has ever been cast in the state, say party leaders. For the first time in twenty years the Democratic party is organized in every city, town and plantation and for the first time the full Democratic vote will be registered. The new men at the head of the Republican machine are ambitious to win to prove that the old guard is not necessary in the management of the party's affairs. The fight is a clear cut party contest with no Progressive ticket to split the Republican vote.

Three Dropped To Death.

Budapest, Sept. 6.—Three soldiers were instantly killed by a fall from an airship which was engaged in military maneuvers. The airship was being prepared for an ascent and was held down by more than 100 soldiers. A heavy wind prevailed and a sudden gust carried the airship away. It rose rapidly and all the men released the ropes but three. They held on until exhausted and fell hundreds of feet to their death.
